

Versace

Founded by Gianni Versace in 1978, Versace is one of the world's leading international fashion brands and is a symbol of Italian style worldwide. The Myth of Versace is famous throughout the world – It is a myth of fashion, glamour and being sexy.

The company designs, manufactures, distributes and retails luxury products ranging from the haute couture of Atelier Versace, to prêt-à-porter collections, from jewelry to perfumes, from home furnishings to fine porcelain art de la table collections, from watches to interior design projects.

Job title: Assistant Store Manager

The Assistant Store Manager will report to the Store Manager

He/She will:

- Support the Store Manager in driving the business results through a continuous development of the store team and an optimized management of store in terms of image, product and operations. Coordinate the team to deliver the Versace experience;
- Support the Store Manager in follow up with every team member on their monthly and yearly objectives in order to develop behavior, performance and capabilities;
- Ensure superior customer service standards, through constant follow up with the team, in order to deliver the Versace experience;
- Ensure store presentation and visual merchandising standards are maintained according to company directives and apply strategies to deliver best results through merchandising and visual representation.

The ideal profile has:

- One to three years of experience in retail management – luxury experience preferred;
- Full understanding of specialty retail and store operations;
- Strong relationships skills and ability to maintain long-term contacts with clients;
- Good team management skills, with the potential to develop people personally and professionally;
- Confidence, organization skills, critical thinking and problem solving skills.

Please send your application to: hr.emea@versace.it